1. ¹In You, O LORD, I place my trust; Let me nev - er be a - shamed.
2. You are my cit - a - del of stone Up - on the moun - tain - side.
3. ⁵As Je - sus cried, "In - to Your hand My Spir - it I com - mit,"
4. ⁷I will be glad, re - joice and praise Je - ho - vah's stead - fast love.

⁴Save, res - cue and de - liv - er me, In Your great right - eous - ness.
For Your name's sake, Al - might - y God, Lead, guide and gov - ern me.
I, too, con - fess, LORD God of truth, Re - demp - tion is in You.
For You have seen my trou - bled soul And known all my dis - tress.

⁸Bow down Your ear and hear my plea, With speed de - liv - er me;
⁴Al - though my foes plot to en - snare, Re - move me from their net
⁶I hate all those who ren - der praise To i - dols false and vain.
⁸Though death and Sa - tan held me fast, You freed me from their hands.

¹²And be my Rock both sound and strong, My for - tress and a - bode.
Be - cause You, Lord, are my strong - hold, My har - bor and my home.
Though fool - ish men chase fee - ble dreams, I trust in GOD a - lone.
My feet now march through all the earth, Christ's King - dom to pro - claim.
