1. The king re - joic - es in Your strength, O Lord, and
2. He asked for life from You, O Lord: You gave it 3. Your hand, O king, will seize your foes; They cringe be - in Your care. You grant - ed all his heart's de - sire, end - less - ly. His glo - ry shines be - cause You gave fore your name. When you ap - pear, God will de - stroy

And You have heard his prayer. You wel - comed him with Him strength and maj - es - ty. You blessed him, Lord, by Them all with dread - ful flame. They plot and scheme but ev - 'ry kind Of grace You could un - fold. Rich bless - ings You have be - ing near; His trust is firm and sure. Be - cause of Your un - flee a - way Be - fore your ar - row's flight. All praise to You, O giv - en him; You crowned his head with gold. fail - ing love Our king will stand se - cure.

Lord, our God; We glo - ry in Your might. A - men.
